

Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING APRIL 17, 1902

Generous.

A woman the other day gave a London cabman 2 sovereigns in mistake for 2 shillings. When he discovered the mistake, he returned to the house and handed over the money to the woman's husband, who, with tears in his eyes, said: "You shall not be a loser by your honesty, my man. Your fare was a shilling. Here's one and fourpence for you."

An Important Qualification.

First Burglar—What did you take that brickbat for? 'Tain't no good. Second Burglar—'Tain't. First Burglar—Now, I tell yer, Jimmies, if yer want me a rust case success in dis business yer got to know somethin' about art—Puck.

That Was Another Question.

Pa (from upper landing to daughter entertaining her "steady" in the parlor)—Glady, what time is it? Glady—I don't know, pa. Our clock isn't going. Pa—How about George?—Richmond Dispatch.

A Correction.

Neighbor—The baby suffers from sleeplessness, does it? Mr. Jerolomon (haggard and hollow eyed)—I didn't say it suffered. It seems to enjoy it. I'm the one that suffers.

Poor, Tired Pa.

"Johnnie," said his mother threateningly to the incorrigible, "I am going to have your father whip you when he comes home tonight." "Please don't, mamma," replied Johnnie penitently. "Paw is allus so tired when he comes home."—Boston Post.

Official Ignorance.

The London Chronicle quotes a naval officer as saying that during the war of 1812 the British admiral sent out to Kingston, Canada, where the British fleet was then stationed, a large number of water casks in the belief that Lake Ontario was a salt water lake.

His Mission.

First Tourist—Um—er—did you come to Florida for your health? Second Same—Now, I fetched that me, I came down here to shoot a nallygator.

Too Precious.

The Subject (after the sitting)—I hadn't sat for a picture before in ten years, don't you know, and I'm deuced glad the worst is over.

The Photographer (innocently).

But you haven't seen the negative yet—Puck.

One Effect of It.

"She seems to be growing lopsided." "Yes. She's been a good deal in the company of a fellow who doesn't know any better than to grab her by the arm and try to help her along by holding one shoulder out of plumb."—Chicago Post.

The Story of a Pioneer.

Few men are more widely known in Topeka, Kas., than Thos. L. Ross. He is the pioneer real estate dealer there, having located in the town in 1873. He was a sufferer from dyspepsia until he heard of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

THOS. L. ROSS.

"For several years," he writes, "my wife and I suffered with that terrible malady known as dyspepsia or indigestion. 'We commenced to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on the recommendation of our druggist. After one dose, and in a short time all those terrible pains and dyspepsia torments passed away. My appetite, also my wife's, came back and our food could be enjoyed as when we were 21. I am turning 77.' 'I have not suffered one day with my stomach since I commenced to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and I recommended it to all of my fellow citizens.'"
